Dear Syeda Manqbat Aelia,

This email serves as formal notice that your employment with Convertt is being terminated, effective after the completion of your 15 days notice period. Your last working day will be April 30, 2026.

This decision results from a strategic shift within our core financial operations. As we moved toward a fully automated internal system for our accounting services, the requirement for your current role has unfortunately been phased out. Please be assured that this decision is strictly based on organizational restructuring.

We sincerely thank you for the dedication and expertise you brought to the team. We greatly value your contributions during your tenure and truly appreciate the hard work you put into supporting our financial operations.

During the notice period, we expect you to:

- Complete all pending tasks and deliverables to the best of your ability.
- Ensure a smooth knowledge transfer and proper handover of your responsibilities.
- Maintain professional conduct and adhere to company policies at all times.

You will continue to receive your full salary and applicable benefits until your last working day. Your final settlement, including any outstanding dues, will be processed in accordance with applicable labor laws.

Please coordinate with the HR team for the return of company assets (including laptop and access credentials) and to complete all exit formalities.

We regret that the circumstances have led to this decision and would like to thank you once again for your time with Convertt. We wish you success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
HR Team
